

PERMIAS PHOENIX HOSTED A FAREWELL GATHERING FOR THE CONSUL GENERAL OF INDONESIA

The Consul General of Indonesia to Los Angeles Subiyaksono Suyono will end his post in the very near future and assume a new responsibility in July, 2010. To bid a farewell to the Indonesian community in the Phoenix Metropolitan Area, the Consul General and his entourage visited Phoenix on April 10, 2010.

A farewell party was hosted by Permias of Phoenix.

During the event, the IAA President presented a cap as a token of appreciation for the Consul General for the good working relationship for the past three years between the Consulate General and IAA.

A Certificate of Appreciation was awarded to the IAA for its positive role in promoting Indonesia and Indonesian culture in Arizona. On behalf of the association, IAA President Dr. J. Andy Soesilo received the certificate from the Consul General.

The Consul General is an enthusiastic musician. Popularly known as "Pak Sonny", the Consul General showed his Musical talent.

Local talented artists performed during the event

Reog Ponorogo crew

The group photo

Faces of the audience

