

IAA HOSTED THE CONSUL GENERAL OF INDONESIA VISITING PHOENIX ART MUSEUM

The Consul General of Indonesia to Los Angeles Subiyaksono Suyono and his entourage visited the Phoenix Art Museum on April 9, 2010 hosted by IAA.

Museum Director James Ballinger, Dr. Peter Banko and Dr. Janet Baker, curators of the Asian Art of the museum, officially greeted the delegation upon arrival to the building.

The Consul General and Dr. Peter Banko discussed the uniqueness of the Sumatran textiles.

The Consul General interested in the display of the Indonesian textiles. Other than the Sumatran textiles, textiles from Borneo, Flores, Java and various parts of Indonesia are on the display for the public until June 2010.

The group photo of the Consul General delegation with the Phoenix Art Museum staff and members of the Indonesian American Association.